The screenshot shows a web browser window with the title bar "Lahaina ~ Ka'anapali". The address bar displays the URL "www.hawaiiancruisers.com/ride/lehain-a-kaanapali/". The main content area features the "Hawaiian CRUISERS" logo at the top left. A navigation menu with links to HOME, SALES, SERVICE, RENTALS, PHOTOS, and CONTACT is positioned above the content. The main content section is titled "Lahaina ~ Ka'anapali" and includes a photograph of a beach scene. Below the photo, text describes Lahaina as an old fishing village/harbor town with various attractions like restaurants, art galleries, and museums. It also mentions the famous Banyan tree and the Kanaapali resort. A link to the "Rides" page is provided. To the right of the main content, there is a sidebar for "yelp REVIEWS" with a star rating and a testimonial. At the bottom of the sidebar, there is another star rating and the text "They have the best".

Lahaina ~ Ka'anapali

If an old fishing village / harbor town is your thing, then Lahaina is the place for you. Down on Front Street you will find an eclectic mix of restaurants, art galleries, museums, T-shirt shops, and several places to wet your whistle. (don't drink and drive, of course). See the famous Banyan tree – one of the largest in the world – right where the fishing boats are docked. Farther north are the resorts in Kanaapali and the coffee plantation in the foothills.
